

air 1 has been a blessing in our home because there is no other christian radio in our area. and if not for air 1 other familys who cant afford to buy music would be deprived. the station offers good deasent music to listen to without having to compromise what they beleave